HOWARD W. CONYERS
DIRECTOR

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

The Annual Report of the Oklahoma Judiciary and Statistical Appendix is presented to you and other interested persons. The purpose of this publication is to provide caseload information and financial data for this state's Trial and Appellate Courts, as well as an overview of the judicial branch of Oklahoma state government.

The number of cases filed with the Supreme Court increased again this fiscal year. On a typical day, nine new cases were filed with the Supreme Court. The number of new filings means that each working day of this past fiscal year, each Justice was assigned an additional case to decide. To judiciously and expeditiously resolve this large number of cases severely taxes the resources, human, physical and financial of the entire appellate system.

Reversing a trend of declining numbers of cases being filed in the trial courts, Fiscal Year 1990 statistics showed a small increase in filings over last year. Because of hard work by Oklahoma's trial judges and court clerks, receipts by the State Judicial Fund improved significantly this year.

Slightly more than twenty years have passed since Oklahoma reformed its judicial branch. As we enter the third decade of that reform and the final decade of this century, we in the Judiciary face many challenges. Every citizen of this state may be assured that the judicial branch of their state government is working harmoniously and diligently with the legislative and executive branches to meet these challenges.

Finally, my thanks and appreciation are extended to Chief Justice Rudolph Hargrave, the Justices of the Oklahoma Supreme Court and all of the persons who serve Oklahoma in its judicial branch.

Respectfully submitted,

Howard W. Conyers

IN MEMORIAM

DISTRICT JUDGE FRANK M. OGDEN, III

District Judge Frank M. Ogden died Saturday, August 11, 1990. Judge Ogden, who also served as Presiding Judge for the Northwestern Administrative District, was appointed as District Judge for the First Judicial District in August, 1977.

During World War II, Judge Ogden served as a Captain in the United States Army Air Force. He also served as a state representative in the Oklahoma House of Representatives and was elected as Majority Floor Leader.

Judge Ogden devoted much of his time to civic and professional organizations. He was active in the Guymon First Baptist Church.

ACTIVE RETIRED JUDGE JOE SAMUEL WALLACE

Active Retired Judge Joe Samuel Wallace died March 29, 1990. Judge Wallace was appointed as Special District Judge in Oklahoma County in 1976 and served until his retirement in 1988. He continued his dedication to the Judiciary by serving as an Active Retired Judge until his death.

Prior to assuming his duties as judge, Judge Wallace worked for the Veteran's Administration for thirty years, attaining the position of Chief Attorney for Oklahoma. He served as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army J.A.G. Corps.

THE JUDICIARY

The Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report for Fiscal Year 1990 and Statistical Appendix, printed by the Office of Public Affairs, Central Printing Division, are issued by the Administrative Director of the Courts as authorized by 20 O.S. 1981, §16.11. Seven Hundred (700) copies of the Annual Report and Five Hundred Fifty (550) copies of the Appendix have been prepared and distributed at a cost of $6,395.00. Copies of both have been deposited with the Publications Clearinghouse of the Oklahoma Department of Libraries.

Court Structure

The third branch of the government, the judiciary, is constitutionally vested with powers which are separate and distinct from the executive and legislative branches of government. The current court structure was adopted in 1969 by constitutional amendment. Jurisdiction of the courts in Oklahoma is divided into four categories:

1) Courts of last resort;
2) Intermediate appellate courts;
3) Courts of general jurisdiction; and
4) Courts of limited jurisdiction.

Courts of Last Resort

Two courts fall into this category — the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals. In addition to having jurisdiction over all civil appeals, the Supreme Court has general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards created by law, with the exception of the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. The Court of Criminal Appeals has appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases.

Intermediate Appellate Courts

The Court of Appeals, created in 1970, is Oklahoma's intermediate appellate court. Jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals is prescribed by the Supreme Court. The Court of Appeals hears and decides cases assigned to it by the Supreme Court.

Courts of General Jurisidiction

In Oklahoma, the court of general jurisdiction is the District Court. The state is divided into twenty-six district court judicial districts. The District Court has unlimited original jurisdiction over all justiciable matters.

Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

Oklahoma has four courts of limited jurisdiction. The Court on the Judiciary, which was created by constitutional amendment in 1966, consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The Court on the Judiciary has jurisdiction over all proceedings filed against judges which seek removal of a judge from office. The Workers' Compensation Court hears and determines claims brought by employees against employers for work-related injuries. The Court of Tax Review is comprised of three judges designated by the Governor to consider protests against tax levies. Municipal Courts hear prosecutions involving violations of municipal ordinances. Cities with populations in excess of 200,000 have municipal criminal courts of record. All other municipalities have courts not of record.

To assist the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in exercising the court's administrative authority over all inferior courts, the Constitution authorizes an Administrative Director of Courts and staff. The Administrative Office of the Courts works closely with the Supreme Court, and particularly the Chief Justice, in administering the judicial branch of government for the State of Oklahoma.

Supreme Court

The Oklahoma Constitution grants to the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction in all civil cases, both at law and in equity. In the event a conflict arises between the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals regarding jurisdiction, the Supreme Court is constitutionally empowered to determine which court has jurisdiction. The Supreme Court has general superintending control and administrative authority over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards except for the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. Additionally, the Supreme Court has the exclusive power and authority to discipline attorneys and pass upon the qualifications of all applicants for admission to the practice of law within the state.

The nine justices, one from each of the Supreme Court judicial districts, serve six-year terms. At the general election preceding the expiration of a term of office, a justice who desires to remain in office must file a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. If a majority of those voters casting ballots in a nonpartisan election vote in favor of retention, the justice will serve another term.

A vacancy occurring on the Supreme Court during a term of office is filled by gubernatorial appointment. The Judicial Nominating Commission provides the Governor with a list of nominees which have been selected by the Commission from applicants living in the appropriate Supreme Court judicial district. To be eligible to serve as a justice on the Supreme Court, an applicant must be at least thirty years of age, a qualified elector in his or her particular Supreme Court district for at least one year, and a licensed practicing attorney or judge for five years.

The Supreme Court selects a Chief Justice and Vice-Chief Justice who serve two-year terms. The Court also appoints a Clerk of the Supreme Court and an Administrative Director of the Courts, both of whom serve at the pleasure of the Supreme Court. James W. Patterson, as Clerk of the Supreme Court, is responsible for maintaining all records of the Supreme Court. The Administrative Director, Howard W. Conyers, assists the Chief Justice in his various administrative duties.

Court of Criminal Appeals

Jurisdiction of all criminal appeals rests exclusively with the Court of Criminal Appeals. The five-member court decides appeals from the District Courts and the Municipal Criminal Courts of Record.

The judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals are selected in the same manner as Supreme Court justices from five Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. They serve six-year terms and are subject to a nonpartisan statewide vote on their retention.

On January 9, 1989, two additional judges were added to this court to fill two newly-created Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. Vacancies on the court are filled by gubernatorial appointments with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court serves as the ex officio Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Court of Appeals

The caseload of the Court of Appeals is comprised solely of civil appeals assigned by the Supreme Court. Final decisions of the Court of Appeals are not directly appealable to the Supreme Court; however, if a majority of the justices agree that certiorari should be granted, the decision by the Court of Appeals may be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Each of the 12 judges of the Court of Appeals is assigned by the Supreme Court to one of four permanent divisions, two of which sit in Tulsa County and two in Oklahoma County. Two judges serve from each of the six congressional districts in the state. In a nonpartisan election, if a majority of those who cast ballots vote in favor of retention, the judge will serve another term.

If a vacancy occurs on the Court of Appeals prior to the expiration of a term, the Governor appoints a successor. In making the appointment, the Governor relies upon the recommendation of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court also serves as Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

District Courts

The District Courts have unlimited original jurisdiction in all justiciable matters and the power of review in administrative actions designated by statute. In addition, appeals from Municipal Courts not of record are heard by the District Courts as trials de novo.

Oklahoma is divided into 26 District Court judicial districts. Each such district consists of an entire county or several contiguous counties. For the purposes of administration, the judicial districts are combined into nine judicial administrative districts. A district judge is selected as presiding judge by all the district and associate district judges within the judicial administrative district. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the presiding judge has general administrative authority and supervision over all courts within the district. A Chief judge assists the Presiding Judge by administering activities within a county.

The District Courts consist of 71 district judges, 77 associate district judges and 62 special judges. District judges and associate district judges are elected for four-year terms in nonpartisan elections within their judicial districts. If a vacancy occurs in the position of district judge or associate district judge, the Governor appoints a replacement with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission. Special judges are appointed by the district judges of the judicial administrative district.

A District Court clerk is elected from each county for a four-year term. Once elected, they serve as county officers and are responsible for maintaining all court records.

Pursuant to statute, a trial court administrator is appointed to serve in the Oklahoma-Canadian Counties Judicial Administrative District and in the Tulsa-Pawnee Counties Judicial Administrative District. The trial court administrator assists the presiding judge in the performance of all administrative duties. The Trial Court Administrator for the Oklahoma-Canadian Counties Judicial Administrative District is Robert M. Martin. The Trial Court Administrator for the Tulsa-Pawnee Counties Judicial Administrative District is Dave W. Hill.

Court on the Judiciary

The Court on the Judiciary consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The trial division is composed of nine members, eight of whom are district judges, senior in service and under the age of 60, and one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors. The appellate division is composed of two members of the Supreme Court, chosen by the Court; one member of the Court of Criminal Appeals, selected by the court; one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors; and five district judges senior in service and under the age of 65. Each division of the Court on the Judiciary selects its presiding judge.

Any justice or judge of any court is subject to removal from office or compulsory retirement by proceedings in the Court on the Judiciary. Jurisdiction of the trial division of the Court on the Judiciary may be invoked by a petition filed by the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice, the Governor, the Attorney General, the Executive Director of the Oklahoma Bar Association (upon direction by the Board of Governors), by resolution of the OBA House of Delegates, or by resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Oklahoma. After a full hearing, the trial division renders its judgment. From any judgment of the trial division, the respondent or the prosecutor may appeal to the appellate division which may affirm, modify, or reverse the judgment.

Council on Judicial Complaints

The Council on Judicial Complaints was established by statute as the investigatory body for the Court on the Judiciary. The Council is empowered to investigate all complaints made against a member of the judiciary. The Council may dismiss a complaint or recommend that the matter be made the subject of proceedings before the Court on the Judiciary.

The Council consists of three members, with two being members of the Oklahoma Bar Association. They serve five-year terms. The Administrative Director of the Courts serves as ex officio secretary to the Council.

Judicial Nominating Commission

The Judicial Nominating Commission was created by passage of a Constitutional Amendment in 1967. The amendment provided that vacancies in certain judicial positions are to be filled by appointments by the Governor instead of through election.

When a vacancy in a judicial office occurs, the Nominating Commission is required to accept the applications, review, and submit at least three nominees to the Governor and the Chief Justice. The Governor, within sixty days of receipt of the nominees', appoints a person from the list of nominees submitted by the Commission.

The Judicial Nominating Commission consists of thirteen members. Six of the members are appointed by the Governor, and six members elected by the Oklahoma Bar Association. These appointments are selected from the six congressional districts. A thirteenth at-large member is appointed by the Commission.

During the fiscal year, the Nominating Commission screened approximately 127 applicants to fill judicial vacancies in the District Courts, Court of Criminal Appeals, Court of Appeals and the Workers' Compensation Court. The Administrative Office of the Courts assists the Nominating Commission in its duties.

Foster Care Review Board

Oklahoma has had a system of foster care review boards since 1981. These boards review the cases of children who have been adjudicated deprived and placed outside their home. Each board has at least five members and reviews the cases within forty-five days of the dispositional hearing or six months following removal of a child from the custody of a parent or guardian, whichever occurs first, and thereafter at least once every six months. The board's findings and recommendations are made available to the court. Review boards also engage in other activites to promote permanency planning for children.

Oklahoma also has a State Foster Care Review Advisory Board, which oversees the implementation of the state review system. This eighteen-person board assists in the training of the review boards and functions as an advisory body for the courts and the legislature concerning statutes, court rules and procedures relating to foster care.

WASHITA COUNTY COURTHOUSE

LOVE COUNTY COURTHOUSE

CARTER COUNTY COURTHOUSE

The Washita County Courthouse has moved from the Iron Hotel in Cloud Chief, the original county seat during the 1892 territorial era, to Cordell in 1900. The present ornate courthouse was built in 1910 with a long series of steps leading up to the front entryway where Ionic columns support the gable. The large dome has four clocks each facing a different direction and keeping perfect time.

The present Love County Courthouse was also built in 1910 and features a clock in the center of a Neo-Classical dome above the roof. It presents a sharp contrast to the main Second Renaissance Revivial architectural structure. The flying wings with grooved stone are other unique elements of the building.

The year 1910 also saw the completion of the Carter County Courthouse used today. The dominant style is Neo-Classical with the combination of Doric columns on the main building and Ionic columns decorating the tower and dome. Four working clocks complete the ornate tower.

JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

Administrative Office of the Courts

As authorized by the constitution and by statute, the Supreme Court appoints an Administrative Director of the Courts to assist the Chief Justice in exercising his administrative authority within the judicial branch of government. The duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Office of the Courts are grouped into three divisions: financial services, court services and legal services.

• FINANCIAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Fiscal and personnel matters are handled by the Financial Services Division which is responsible for appropriated funding requests, budgets, accounting and payroll support for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and District Courts. In performing its accounting function, the Financial Services Division receives and processes all expenditures from appropriated and dedicated funds, reconciles monthly statements of account and provides state-wide purchasing for the courts. In its personnel capacity, the Division provides the administrative, accounting and clerical services necessary to maintain a work force of approximately 650 judicial and nonjudicial personnel. This work force includes judges, trial court administrators, court reporters, secretary-bailiffs and secretaries for the District Courts, and justices, judges, judicial assistants, clerks, marshals, referees, secretaries and administrative staff for the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

• COURT SERVICES DIVISION •

The Court Services Division is responsible for a variety of services to the District and appellate courts of Oklahoma. The various functions include information systems and data processing (Oklahoma Court Information System), court fund accounting, audit, planning and budget assistance, a procedural reference service for court clerks, and statewide jury selection. The Division also performs statistical gathering and analysis on district and appellate court caseloads and district court financial status.

The primary objective of the Oklahoma Court Information System is to provide automated case management and tracking to the district courts in addition to the ancillary information processing necessary for administration and court operation. The system is presently being used for the processing of all civil and criminal matters in Oklahoma, Tulsa, Comanche, Cleveland, and Garfield Counties. The system is also used in the Administrative Office for accounting, payroll, statistics, personnel, licensing and jury selection. A satellite processor is handling traffic matters in Noble County as a pilot project for use of personal computers in the medium and smaller sized courts. Plans are being completed to expand full case processing capability to five additional large counties, and traffic case processing in those counties where traffic cases represent a large portion of the county's caseload.

In the appellate courts, the Appellate Case Tracking System and Issue Tracking System provide data storage and retrieval capabilities for civil and criminal appeals. The appellate system is used to track both cases and issues in the appellate courts.

The Court Services Division has implemented a Court Fund management and audit concept. This entails on-site visits to district court offices for purposes of consulting, problem solving and routine audit of Court Fund practices. Instructional seminars are regularly scheduled for procedural refreshers to existing personnel, and basic instruction for new court officials in the management of the court and caseload accounting.

• LEGAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Due to the diversity of its duties, the Administrative Office of the Courts has contact with many groups both within and outside the court system. The Legal Services Division interacts with judges, court clerks, court reporters, legislators and the general public.

Supplying legal information to various people in the court system is a primary function of this division. This includes conducting legal research, and monitoring legislation affecting the courts as it progresses through the legislative process.

Through the Legal Services Division, the Administrative Office provides assistance to the Council on Judicial Complaints, the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Oklahoma Judicial Conference, the Assembly of Presiding Judges, the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and the State Foster Care Review Advisory Board.

The newest section of the Legal Services Division is the Dispute Resolution System. Begun in November, 1985, this system has a statutory purpose of providing to all citizens of Oklahoma convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive, and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes.

To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose, the System receives, in a revolving fund collected by all court clerks, $2 for every civil case filed in Oklahoma, and $5 from each party using the services of a volunteer mediator in a certified dispute resolution center.

The Administrative Director is charged with the duty of administering and supervising the local dispute resolution programs, encouraging and assisting in their establishment throughout Oklahoma, and with disbursing collected System monies to aid the centers with operational expenses.

Dispute Mediation Services

The Oklahoma Dispute Resolution System, which focuses on mediation services, began in November, 1985. The statutory purpose of the program is to provide, for all citizens of Oklahoma, convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes. Dispute mediation is an informal and effective way, with the aid of a neutral and trained third party, to reach an agreement in a dispute. Participation in the process is voluntary. Referrals to mediation may come from any community source, including court order. Mediation proceedings are confidential and may not be used in any later litigation. Both parties in the dispute participate in reaching an agreement. The mediating neutral party does not render a decision. Instead, he or she functions as a facilitator to encourage communication and creative problem solving in a safe, structured and positive manner. Mediators are trained by one of eight state certified dispute mediation trainers, approved by their local program directors, and certified by the Administrative Director of the Courts. There are 400 certified mediators located throughout the state. The types of conflicts that are often mediated are between: neighbors, family members, landlord and tenant, customer and merchant, farmer and creditor, employer and employee, roommates, friends, or victim and offender. At the present time, fourteen mediation programs are certified. Five programs provide specialized services statewide and nine are community programs providing services regionally. The Administrative Director is required to administer and supervise the System's dispute resolution programs, to encourage and assist in the establishment of new programs throughout Oklahoma, and to disburse collected System monies to aid the local centers with operational expenses. The Director is assisted by staff and a 15 member advisory board.

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference is an organization whose membership is comprised of active and retired members of the judiciary in the State of Oklahoma. The purpose of the Judicial Conference is to provide continuing judicial education and training to its members, assistance to the Legislature concerning matters affecting the trial courts, and foster communications among all levels of the state judiciary.

The Judicial Conference has three active committees. They are the Legislative, Program and Education, and Judges Helping Judges Committees.

The Oklahoma Judicial Conference meets biannually for educational programs and administrative responsibilities. The officers serve one year terms, assuming their responsibilities at the beginning of every calendar year.

JUDICIAL FUNDING

Funding For The Courts

FUNDING SOURCES

Funding for the court system is derived from two sources. The primary source of funding is court generated funding from fines, fees and forfeitures. The secondary source of funding is state generated funding derived from taxes.

COURT GENERATED FUNDING

Court generated funding consists of fines, fees, and bond forfeitures collected by the 77 District Court Clerks and the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

At the district court level, revenues received are used for the local operations of the District Courts. These expenditures are for items such as juror and witness costs, supplies, utilities for space occupied by the courts, attorney fees for indigent defense, part-time bailiff and part-time court clerk employees, per diem court reporters, furniture, equipment purchases and equipment rentals. Additional expenditures include payments required by statute to be paid to the Judicial Retirement System, CLEET Fund, Dispute Resolution Fund, Law Libraries, Sheriffs, Victims Compensation Fund and the County General Fund.

On a quarterly basis, each District Court Clerk files a report with the Administrative Office of the Courts that lists the local expenses and revenues and submits a deposit to the State Judicial Fund. The fees received by the Clerk of the Supreme Court are deposited directly into the State Judicial Fund. Two other sources of money for the State Judicial Fund are surplus funds transferred from the law libraries and court reporter license fees.

After payment of local court expenses, the balance of the State Judicial Fund is available for legislative appropriation to the District Courts. This appropriation pays the salaries and travel expenses of District Court judges, secretary-bailiffs and court reporters. Some direct costs of the Supreme Court are paid from the State Judicial Fund and require no legislative appropriation. These costs are: jury trials where the local court fund is insolvent, costs related to a criminal change of venue, attorney fees and expert witness fees for indigent defendants charged with first degree murder, expenses related to the Council on Judicial Complaints, and expenses of the State Board of Examiners of Official Shorthand Reporters.

STATE GENERATED FUNDING

Because court-generated revenues are not sufficient for all expenses of the state court system. State-generated revenues must be provided through legislative appropriations.

The primary source of appropriated funding for the Supreme Court has historically been the General Revenue Fund. In recent years the Legislature has relied upon the Workers' Compensation Fund for the balance of the Supreme Court appropriation. The Supreme Court does not receive funding from the State Judicial Fund except for statutory requirements, illustrated on page 50.

The primary source of funding for the District Courts is the State Judicial Fund. Projected receipts to the fund, in excess of anticipated statutory expenditures, are certified by the State Board of Equalization and appropriated to the District Courts. The Judicial Fund is not large enough to completely support the District Courts and additional appropriated funding is required from General Revenue and other funds.

JUDICIAL STATISTICAL SUMMARY

Statewide Statistics for District Courts

Included in this section are tables and graphs summarizing the caseload inventory of the District Courts for Fiscal Year 1990. Civil cases are categorized as general civil, domestic relations, small claims and probate. Criminal cases are either felony or misdemeanor.

These tables and graphs depict statewide totals. The Annual Report Statistical Appendix contains statistical data for each county and District Court judicial district.

Also included is a chart which ranks the District Court judicial districts according to population per authorized judgeships and cases filed per authorized judgeships.

Law Libraries

Law libraries are statutorily established and maintained in each of the 77 county seats. The use of the law library is free to every citizen in the county. Subject to approval of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, each law library is managed by a board of trustees whose number and duties may be found at 20 O.S. § 1204-1211.

Funding for each library is derived from the court fund of its county, unless waived by the board of trustees. For FY-90, a charge of $3.50 was deducted from each non-criminal court filing fee and paid to the county treaurer for the law library on a quarterly basis. These funds are utilized to purchase law books and periodicals and to maintain the library.

Each fiscal year, the law library board of trustees may submit a request to the Chief Justice for additional court fund money to support the law library. Limitations on the additional amounts of funding are prescribed according to county population:

	- 9,999	$ 5,000
10,000	- 29,999	$ 7,000
30,000	- 54,999	$ 9,000
55,000	-	$10,000

Other revenues have come from donations, book sales and legacies.

Unless a librarian is appointed by the board, the court clerk is directed to serve as custodian of the law library. Duties of the law librarian include maintaining a complete inventory, making financial reports and updating volumes.

A summary of the collections and disbursements for the 77 county law libraries for FY-90 is included.

Introduction

District Courts Statistical Information

The following pages contain the FY-90 caseload statistics for the 26 District Court judicial districts and the counties within each district. Six major categories of cases are reported: general civil, domestic relations, probate, small claims, felony and misdemeanor. For each of these categories, the number of cases filed, disposed of and pending is first presented, followed by a numerical breakdown of the methods of disposition.

Three of the major categories are divided into more specific case classifications with filing and disposition totals provided for each subdivision. Domestic relations cases are broken down into divorce, incoming reciprocal support, outgoing reciprocal support and all others. Felony cases are divided into felony D.U.I. and all others. Misdemeanor cases are categorized as misdemeanor D.U.I., traffic, and non-motor vehicle misdemeanor.

Caution should be exercised in using these statistics as a means of determining judicial workloads. Judges spend a great deal of their time counseling, researching, traveling and performing administrative tasks. Courts in metropolitan areas face heavy and specialized caseloads. In other areas of the state, the distance between the towns in which court is held, and the additional duties involved in working with multiple staffs, are factors which must be considered.

Additionally, due to a variety of circumstances, no two cases are exactly alike, although statistically, they are considered equal. Because factors are involved which cannot be shown quantitatively, these factors must be considered when interpreting the statistics.
